Break the Frame — Capture Sheet

For the facilitator — capture where the team started, the options each viewpoint unlocked, and the freshest few to carry forward, so the reveal survives the room.

TEAM	THE PROBLEM (CENTRE CARD)	DATE

How to use this: fill it in as the activity runs, not after. Zone 1 is written privately before round 1, then set aside unread. Zone 2 fills as you run the viewpoints. Zone 3 is the reveal — the freshest options, and which the team's own starting view would never have reached.

1 · Starting answers — written privately, before round 1; set aside unread until the comparison

The anti-anchor: what the team would have recommended if it had to decide right now.

2 · New options, viewpoint by viewpoint — fill one row each round

VIEWPOINT	NEW OPTION IT PRODUCED

3 · Freshest options to take forward — ✓ = never in Zone 1; note the viewpoint that unlocked it

OPTION TO CARRY FORWARD	UNLOCKED BY (VIEWPOINT)	✓ NEW

The ticked options are the lesson: the team wasn't out of ideas — it was stuck in one frame.

4 · Carry it forward — take the freshest options into the real decision

OPTION TO EXPLORE · OWNER · FIRST STEP

The habit: "Whose eyes haven't we looked through yet?"

Before you leave the room: photograph this sheet and the starting answers, and send them to everyone who took part. An insight that isn't written down rarely survives the week.
